Dear Esther: Good Morning

I had a good, ^{but} short night's sleep again, and am hard at it once more. I believe we are getting along fine, and it's not a matter of life and death. So there is no need for you to worry about anything. But if you are feeling O.K. I wish you would drop Agnes a line and ask her and Ed to get in touch with us, at the earliest possible date as we need her and his cooperation, legally.

Financially I am not going past the Henderson agreement which was ($45 working fund) ($25 per head or $300. return fees) and $100. per head if he wins out in the ^{SD} office

Our lawyers believe they can get the Tarran children back on the roll with-out going to court. But are not so sure about the grand children. If this case has to go to court. The Indian office alone agrees what the fees shall be. That seems to be the law

Briefly. I have more respect for the Indian office + its inspectors today than ever before. All our trouble lies with Rastall and Munnal. Mostly by far with the latter.

Munt close. Its still raining.
Am hoping for a word from you today. Love to you all. E.E.
